To the monthly meeting at the Long plain

Dear Friends I do humbly own and acknowledge that I do justly stand as an offender amongst you for marrying contrary to the good order of friends & for being Guilty of the sin of fornication for which I am heartily sorry & condemn & Desire that the almighty will forgive me & that friends will pass it by and suffer me to Remain under their Care if they can find freedom so to do So in Love I Remain your friend Elisabeth Gifford

To the monthly meeting of women Friends at the Long plain Dear <sup>My dear</sup> Friends under an awakened & Humble sense of my sin & the Dishonour I have brought upon the Blessed truth Found it in my heart to Condemn my past Life. I have Through unwatchfulness & neglecting that holy principle of Light & Life, which was placed in my heart fell into that Dreadful & Heinous Sin of adultery which I have & do Sincerely Repent of and Condemn; I have cried Dayly unto the god of my Salvation that he would in his Infinite goodness & Condescension have mercy upon me; & blot out my Transgressions & take away my sins & Create in me a Clean heart & renew a right Spirit within me I have cried in the Bitterness of my Soul, unto the Lord that he would not cast me off out of his presence forever; altho I am unworthy of the Least of his mercies & Blessings yet for his Dear Sons sake who suffered Death for my sins upon the Cross: I was in hopes I should obtain mercy. I cryed unto the Lord that he would Incline his ear unto me for I was sore Distressed & had none to help me In heaven nor on Earth but him alone; neither Desired I any I knew he was the only phisitian of value and in my earnest Supplication & continual cries I felt him to arise as with healing in his wings & bound up my broken heart & mollified my wounds with ointment which seemed almost Incurable; O I can say his presence is more to me then my natural Life I Regard not this Tabernacle of Clay as any thing If I can Live with god forever. I pray I may ever Remain under a humbling sense of his mercies & not when I am washed return to my filth again. and now if friends think it most for the honour of truth to Disown me I hope I shall bear it patiently, notwithstanding if the wound can be in any measure healed I should be glad to Remain under Friends watchful care from

Sarah Davis
